Advent is a season of expectation and hope, grounded in the incarnation of Emmanuel; God with us. Each year we turn our gaze eastward to look for the familiar people and places that make the incarnation of Christ come alive. How best to prepare for the coming of the Christ Child than to stand in the places where the events of Jesus' life and ministry took place.

Join us on our pilgrimage to the Holy Land as we see firsthand the places where Jesus walked, taught and preached. We will visit the Church of the Annunciation, where the angel Gabriel- announced the coming of the Savior. Journey to one of the oldest churches in Christendom in Bethlehem, and the place of Jesus' birth. See the many sites around and on the Sea of Galilee where Jesus spent most of his three years of ministry. We will go to the site of his Baptism at the River Jordan and renew our own Baptismal Covenant, and finally journey up to Jerusalem and walk the via Delarosa as we make our way to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, Christianity's holiest church, where the crucifixion, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ took place.

Early in the 4th Century, C.E., the Empress Helena, mother of Constantine traveled from Western Europe to the Holy Land. Helena, like countless pilgrims after her, made the journey in order to find the place, to see and pray where events in the life of Christ took place. Her journey changed her life, that of her son, and the entire world. Since that time, millions of Christians have followed in the footsteps of Helena.

You are invited to join us on pilgrimage to stand for a time in Helena's shoes. Not only will you see the places where it all began, but you will see the "facts on the ground"—what it means to be a Christian in Israel and Palestine today. So do come join us. Bring your head and your heart but put your feet on the ground of the Holy Land.

The Holy Land is often described as the 5th Gospel for its power to bring scripture alive and inspire us all in our Christian faith. Join us this Advent for an adventure into Holy Hope. Holy Land, as we embark on an incredible adventure to discover anew the places of our faith.

Itinerary

DAY 1: SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4

(John of Damascus, Priest, c. 760)

We meet at St Louis-Lambert Airport in the afternoon, to check in for our journey to Israel. After a short flight to Chicago, we change planes for our flight to Israel. Dinner will be served on the flight, and we hope to be able to sleep well as we head across the Atlantic to the Holy Land.

DAY 2: SUNDAY, DECEMBER 5

(Advent II - Clement of Alexandria, Priest, c. 210)

We land at Tel Aviv in the afternoon. After clearing Immigration and Customs formalities we will be met by the local Christians who will be our guide and driver throughout our journey and make our way to our beautiful pilgrim guest house on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee. We will arrive in time to freshen up before dinner and an early night!

DAY 3: MONDAY, DECEMBER 6

(Nicholas, Bishop of Myra, c. 342)

We begin our pilgrimage with the celebration of the Eucharist at Dalmanutha on the shore of the Sea of Galilee. We will spend the rest of the day visiting the sites around the Sea of Galilee associated with Jesus' ministry of miracles and teaching set around the lake. We will have the chance to visit the Mount of Beatitudes, the ruins of Capernaum, the Church of the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes, and the Church of Peter's Primacy. We will have the chance to experience our own boat ride on the lake, as well as seeing the first century fishing boat discovered towards the end of the last century. We will also visit the recently excavated first century synagogue at Magdala, the birthplace of Mary Magdalene, before returning to our hotel in good time to freshen up before dinner. Overnight stay by the Sea of Galilee.

DAY 4: TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7

(Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, 397)

This morning, leaving the hotel we drive in a westerly direction crossing the fertile Valley of Jezreel to visit the Basilica on the summit of Mount Tabor, believed by many to be the site of the Transfiguration. We will celebrate the Eucharist here before descending the mountain. After a break for lunch, we drive to Nazareth, the town where Jesus grew up, to visit the Basilica of the Annunciation and the Synagogue Church. We then continue to the nearby village of Cana, the site of Jesus' first "sign" according to St John, and the ruins of the city of Sepphoris, a major Roman and Byzantine city, before returning to our lakeside guest house in good time to relax before dinner. Overnight stay by the Sea of Galilee.

DAY 5: WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8

Leaving the beauty and tranquility of the Galilee, we will journey through the heart of the West Bank to the major Palestinian city of Nablus. We will see the work of St Luke's Episcopal Hospital, providing significant medical care in the heart of the city, and visit Jacob's Well, which was already a place of pilgrimage in the time of Jesus. After lunch we come to the Jordan River to renew our Baptismal Covenant. From here we make our way to Jerusalem, stopping in the town of Bethany, where Jesus would stay in the home of his friends Martha, Mary and Lazarus. Finally, we will arrive at the Christian Quarter of the Old City and check into our hotel situated inside the city walls, which will be our home for the remainder of our pilgrimage.

DAY 6: THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9

Today we head south after breakfast to visit the Old Testament city of Hebron, a city of crucial importance to the three Abrahamic faiths to visit the Tombs of the Patriarchs and see for ourselves the effects of the Occupation in the heart of the old city. From here we come to Bethlehem. In addition to visiting the Church of the Nativity, the oldest intact church in Christendom, and the nearby Shepherds Fields at Beit Sahour, we will also see the remarkable work of the St Vincent Creche/Orphanage. Run by the Daughters of Charity, this is the only facility of its kind in the West Bank, offering Christian love and compassion to over forty abandoned babies and small children. At the end of the day, we return to our hotel in Jerusalem for dinner and our overnight stay.

DAY 7: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10

This morning we begin the day with a visit to the Garden Tomb, which will give us a sense of how Golgotha might have looked at the time of Jesus. From here we drive to the Princess Basma Center, an Episcopal institution renowned for its remarkable work with disabled children. After a break for lunch, we will walk the traditional Palm Sunday route down the Mount of Olives, starting at Bethphage, and finishing in the Garden of Gethsemane. On the way we will stop at the Chapel of the Ascension, and the churches of Pater Noster and Dominus Flevit, and finally the Church of All Nations.

DAY 8: SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11

After an early breakfast we leave Jerusalem and drive down to the Dead Sea basin and continue south along the shoreline to Mount Masada. We ascend the summit by cable car to visit Herod's stepped palace complex, ancient water cisterns, massive grain silos and the remains of a Byzantine church. Afterwards we will have the opportunity to bathe in the unique mineral laden waters of the Dead Sea. We return north along the Dead Sea visiting Qumran on our way. It was here that the Dead Sea scrolls were discovered and led to the excavations of the nearby Essene Monastery where the scrolls may have originated. We plan to arrive back in Jerusalem in good time to freshen up before dinner. Overnight stay in Jerusalem.

DAY 9: SUNDAY, DECEMBER 12

(Advent III)

We begin our day by attending the principal Sunday Eucharist at St George's Episcopal Cathedral. Late morning, we make our way to the Israel Museum to visit the Shrine of the Book exhibition about the Dead Sea Scrolls, and a beautiful, scaled model of ancient Jerusalem as it was at the time of Jesus. In the afternoon we drive to Mount Zion to visit sites associated with the Last Supper, the Day of Pentecost, the falling asleep of Mary, and the church of St Peter in Gallicantu, where Jesus was held by the Jewish authorities on the night before his death. We will finish the day in the village of Ein Karem, believed to be the home of Elizabeth and Zechariah, the parents of John the Baptist. Here we can sing 'Magnificat' where it was first sung, before returning to our hotel for dinner and our overnight stay.

DAY 10: MONDAY, DECEMBER 13

This morning we start at the Dung Gate to ascend the Temple Mount (if permitted) to enjoy a close-up view of the Dome of the Rock and Al Aqsa Mosque. Exiting the Temple Mount, we visit the church of St Anne by the Pools of Bethesda, close to the start of the Via Dolorosa. From where we will prayerfully walk the Way of the Cross through the winding alleys of the “Via Dolorosa” until we come to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, built over what every generation has believed is the place of Jesus’ crucifixion, burial and resurrection. After a break for lunch, we drive to the Yad Vashem Holocaust Memorial Museum and Garden. Later in the afternoon we return to the Dung Gate to visit the Western Wall plaza and make the extraordinary walk through the Western Wall Tunnels that take us underground through the heart of the Old City.

DAY 11: TUESDAY, DECEMBER 14

On our final day of pilgrimage, we will drive to one of the sites associated with biblical Emmaus to have a final act of worship together, stopping first at the Orthodox Monastery of the Cross, built at the site where it is believed the tree grew that provided the wood for Jesus’ cross. Returning to Jerusalem, we will have the chance to enjoy some free time (lunch will not be provided today) until we depart mid-afternoon to the beautiful town of Jaffa on the Mediterranean coast for our final dinner in the Holy Land. From here we drive to Tel Aviv airport to begin our journey home, flying overnight to Newark.

DAY 12: WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15

Landing at Newark in the early morning, we clear U.S. immigration and Customs before flying onwards to Saint Louis, where we land around 8am, ready to tell our family and friends of all that we have learned in the Land of the Holy One.

Please note this complex touring program may be subject to minor local amendments.

HEALTH & FITNESS:

This pilgrimage involves a considerable amount of walking, although it is not a hiking expedition. Pilgrims will need to be able to get on and off a bus frequently, and, in the course of a day, walk one or two miles at a gentle pace, sometimes on uneven or hilly ground. Much of the terrain is not suited to the use of wheelchairs or walkers, and people who depend on these for mobility would find their ability to participate fully in the pilgrimage extremely limited. By signing up for this pilgrimage, you are agreeing that you have noted this advice, and that you are fit enough to undertake the trip.

Jordan Extension (OPTIONAL)

DECEMBER 1-5, 2021

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1 (Nicholas Ferrar, Deacon, 1637)

We meet at St Louis-Lambert Airport in the early afternoon to start our journey to the Middle East, flying first to Chicago, and then onwards to Amman, Jordan. Dinner will be served on board and we hope to get a good night's sleep as we cross the Atlantic.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2 (Channing Moore Williams, Missionary Bishop in China and Japan, 1910)

Landing in Amman at lunch time we will drive the short distance to Mount Nebo to start our pilgrimage at the place where Moses gazed across to the Promised Land, before visiting nearby Madaba to see the famous mosaic map that places Jerusalem at the center of the known world. After these visits we will drive south to Wadi Musa, to our hotel located by the entrance to the archaeological site of Petra, where we will spend two nights.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3

We will spend the day in the ancient city of Petra, located in a spectacular setting deep inside a narrow desert gorge. From the main entrance we will travel on foot through the awesome 'Siq', an immense crack in the sandstone that winds its way between overhanging cliffs. At the end of the Siq is Petra's most famous monument, the Treasury, and various walks and climbs reveal literally hundreds of buildings, facades, tombs, baths, funerary halls, temples and a 3,000 seat Roman theatre.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4 (John of Damascus, Priest, c. 760)

Leaving Petra after breakfast, we drive north to visit the Baptism Site and see the impressive excavations on the eastern side of the Jordan River. From here it is only a short drive to our hotel on the shore of the Dead Sea, where we will have the rest of the day to relax and enjoy its facilities.

After lunch we continue north to Um Qeis, believed to be biblical Gadara, and enjoy the breathtaking view over the Sea of Galilee. Finally we come to the Sheik Hussein border crossing, and on entering Israel will drive to our pilgrim hotel on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, where we will meet the rest of our pilgrim group.

CHANGES WE MAKE AND FLEXIBILITY

We plan our trips many months and sometimes years in advance. Sometimes, although not often, we have to change or cancel portions of the itinerary, lodging and other details of a trip. As such, we cannot guarantee that every part of the itinerary advertised in the brochure will be followed or that the duration of each visit along the route will be as advised. While we strive to operate all tours as advertised, we reserve the right to modify or cancel any flight, schedule, accommodation or other details of your trip at any time and without notice except as provided in this section. Most changes are minor, but where they are significant, we will inform you of an existing change when you book, or if you have already booked, prior to your departure provided that we have sufficient time to do so. You then have the following choices:

- a. Accept the changed arrangements as notified to you,
- b. Purchase another available tour from us, or
- c. Cancel your tour. If in these particular circumstances you cancel, all monies paid to us will be refund to you less any non-refundable deposits.

In the event that the significant change is our cancellation of the tour, we will return to you all money that you have paid us or will offer you an alternative available tour to purchase of comparable standard.

CHANGE REQUESTS THAT YOU MAKE

To change your booking, you must submit your request to us in writing by email at info@lightlina.com with "Change Request" in the subject line or postal mail at Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, 1829 North Cleveland Ave, Unit B, Chicago, IL 60614-8015 USA. If you request to change your tour dates or alter your itinerary after we confirm your booking, we will do our best to accommodate your request. If we are able to make such changes, a change fee will be imposed. The type and scope of change dictates the amount of the change fee. Our outside suppliers, including hotels, often impose additional fees or penalties for changes and cancellations. These are included in the change fee and can be substantial.

We will forward any alteration that you request after your tour has commenced to our independent suppliers. We will Work with our suppliers to try and accommodate reasonable requests but cannot guarantee that any changes will be possible after your tour has commenced. Changes while a tour is in progress can cause severe complications and are often not possible.

In the event you request a change, you will be liable for any cancellation charges and change fees that may be levied for the booking of revised arrangements and for all costs associated with the arrangements themselves

FORCE MAJEURE

Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC will not be deemed in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable to you, by reason of delay in performance or nonperformance of any of its obligations under this agreement to the extent that any such delay or nonperformance is due to any Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means any circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including without limitation acts of God, terrorist activities, insurrection, explosion, flood, tempest, forceful wind, fire or accident, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, sabotage, civil disturbance, labor strikes, requisition, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, weather conditions, and unforeseen circumstances. If we and any of our suppliers are affected by Force Majeure, we and our suppliers shall be entitled to, and may in our sole discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the tour. Regarding civil unrest, once we have investigated the prevailing situation, as we deem fit, it shall remain in our sole and absolute discretion whether to proceed with the tour.

TRIP PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

The prices quoted for these tours are based on known costs and exchange rates when tours are planned. We reserve the right to levy a surcharge in the event of any material variation in such costs and rates such as transportation costs and fuel; dues, taxes or fees; or exchange rates applied to particular purchases. Even in such cases, we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the tour price (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges). Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged. If this means paying more than 10% of the tour price, you will be entitled to cancel the tour with a full refund of all monies paid. Should you decide to cancel because of this, you must do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the invoice that contains the surcharge, otherwise your cancellation will be subject to our cancellation policy and fees. Since we have to absorb increased costs equivalent to 2% of the tour price, there will be no reduction in the price of the tour in the event of a favorable variation in costs or exchange rates. Prices will not be increased within 14 days of departure.

LOST/DAMAGED LUGGAGE

You are responsible for your baggage and personal effects throughout the tour. It is important that you keep track of your belongings while traveling just as you would at home. All costs incurred for lost, misplaced, damaged or delayed baggage are at the owner's expense. Any valuable items should be insured accordingly.

NO REFUNDS FOR PERSONAL EXPENSES

You will not be reimbursed for any personal expenses such as airfare, hotel or other travel expenses due to changes in itineraries or tour cancellations.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you have a complaint during your tour, you must promptly report it to either your tour leader or our local representative, so that action can be taken to remedy the problem. Failure to do so while you are on the tour will extinguish or reduce your ability to claim any compensation from Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC, in the event that prompt reporting would have allowed us to fully or partially resolve the complaint at that time. Further, if you attempt to address the issue on your own without using this notice procedure, you assume responsibility for any added costs you may incur and forfeit and potential refunds. If you are not satisfied after using this notice procedure, you must submit your complaint in writing to us within 30 days of the tour's end date. Any complaints received after this date will not be accepted.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

You are responsible for ensuring that all necessary travel documents are valid and effective and in your possession for the entire tour. Passports are required for all citizens traveling abroad and should be valid for at least seven (7) months after your date of return. It is important that the first name and surname on the air ticket matches those on the passport, otherwise the passenger may not be able to travel and any applicable travel insurance may be ineffective. We suggest you apply for or renew a passport early. Other required documents may include visas, permits, and vaccination certificates. You assume complete and full responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements. You are also solely responsible for any adverse consequences resulting from incomplete or defective documentation.

Holders of passports other than U.S., British or Irish should contact Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC for advice on whether or not a Visa is required. Other nationals should ensure they comply with formalities.

For information concerning possible dangers at an international destination, contact the government office in your country that is responsible for issuing travel advisories. In the U.S., contact the Travel Advisory Section of the U.S. State Department, 1-888-407-4747, <http://www.travel.state.gov/>. U.S. citizens may register for the U.S. government's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, a free service, at <https://step.state.gov/step/>.

While we may provide information or advice on matters such as visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, and special equipment in good faith as a courtesy to you, we are not responsible for any errors or omissions as to the information provided.

TRAVEL INSURANCE/PROTECTION

The tour price does not include travel insurance. All Participants are required to have medical insurance to cover any medical problems that might arise abroad, including serious illness and repatriation costs in the event of death. We strongly recommend that you purchase comprehensive travel insurance, covering trip interruption and cancellation, baggage and other expenses which might arise as a result of loss, damage, injury, delay or inconvenience occurring to you.

PRE-DEPARTURE DOCUMENTATION

It is important that you carefully read all trip-related documents that you receive from us as soon as you receive them. It is your responsibility to contact us if any information is incorrect. All Participants must sign this agreement and our release and waiver of liability and assumption of risk and indemnity agreement in order to participate in our trips. Both parents and/or the legal guardian must sign for minor Participants under 18 years of age. If you fail to submit these and other necessary documentation prior to departure, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled by you and impose the cancellation fees described in this agreement.

TOUR DEPARTURE DATE

It is your responsibility to be ready to embark on the tour as specified in the itinerary. We are not responsible for any losses due to cancelled or missed flights, changed flight itineraries, late arrivals, or early departures.

COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL LAWS AND TOUR ETIQUETTE

You must strictly comply with all local laws, respect local customs and culture, accurately assess your abilities, respect other trip members' privacy, and follow the suggestions and advice of any assigned guide. The decision of the local guide or local supplier is final on all matters that may threaten the safety or interfere with the well-being of others. During the tour, Lightline Pilgrimages NA, LLC or the local guide/supplier has the right in its sole discretion to remove anyone who it determines to detract from others' enjoyment of the tour.

HEALTH & FITNESS:

This pilgrimage involves a considerable amount of walking, although it is not a hiking expedition. Pilgrims will need to be able to get on and off a bus frequently, and, in the course of a day, walk one or two miles at a gentle pace, sometimes on uneven or hilly ground. Much of the terrain is not suited to the use of wheelchairs or walkers, and people who depend on these for mobility would find their ability to participate fully in the pilgrimage extremely limited. By signing up for this pilgrimage, you are agreeing that you have noted this advice, and that you are fit enough to undertake the trip.
